SCHOOL TRUSTEES MEET

BIDS FOR SCHOOL BONDS VOTED
RECENTLY TO BE OPENED
ON APRIL 19

The trustees of the city school board met Thursday evening at 7:30 at their office in the Intermediate school, with Trustees Heacock, Todd and Echols present. Mr. Brockman, trustee-elect, was also present familiarizing himself with the workings of the board.

Minutes of the previous meeting read and with a slight correction of the Robertshaw claim, were approved.

Trustee Echols reported that he had seen Superintendent Keppel in regard to the insurance of school employees under the state compensation law. It was the opinion of Mr. Keppel that it was not necessary to take out insurance on employees of public institutions, and in as much as teachers were a part of the state, the trustees could not be held responsible in case of accident. With these instructions the board decided not to take out the insurance.

A communication was received from H. W. Walker notifying the board that certain insurance on the Columbus avenue school had expired and wished to renew the same. The board wishing to divide their insurance among the various agents, the clerk was ordered to notify Mr. Walker that the policy in question had been placed with another agent.

A communication was received from the board of county supervisors notifying the school board that the sale of bonds voted at the recent election had been duly advertised and the bids for same would be opened Monday, April 19th, and asked that a representative of the board be present. The board authorized Trustee Todd to be present with power to accept such sale if in his judgment the price bid was high enough. The board had information that the bonds would sell above par, which speaks well for Glendale.

Messrs. Anderson and Murdock were present and refused to accept the compromise offer on their claim that was authorized at the last meeting. They claimed that their bill was a legitimate bill and that unless the full amount was forthcoming they would bring suit to recover same.

The board offered to arbitrate the matter by leaving it to three disinterested parties. The offer was promptly refused. The board decided to await developments.

A communication was received from Mrs. Gilbert, stating that she had the deed to the lot on Kenwood street made and was ready to close up the deal for same. Mr. White was authorized to see Mrs. Gilbert and to have the transfer properly made at once.

The clerk was ordered to have sewing tables made for the new domestic science room.

The following claims were allowed and ordered paid:

Fowler Bros., $3.25.
Glendale Book Store, $22.27.
C. N. Potter, $2.25.
R. W. Heffelfinger, $1.40.
Dyas-Cline Co., $6.76.
Glendale Implement Co., 75 cents.
Two Boys Oil Co., $80.19.
O. Spencer, $22.40.
So. Cal. Gas Co., $2.24.
First National Bank, $5.80.
No further public business, the board went into executive session.

WEST GLENDALE RECEIVES

Good fellowship and friendliness overflowed at West Glendale Methodist church Thursday evening where a reception was given for those who have united with the church during the past year. Each person was tagged with his or her name as they came in the door.

The church was well filled and all enjoyed the excellent program of readings and songs and in a few well chosen words the pastor, Rev. Hartwell, told his people what he thought of them. Everyone seemed satisfied with the pastor's opinion. Then all repaired to the primary room, where some lively games were played and everyone of necessity became acquainted with his neighbors. After which the ladies of the refreshment committee, with Mrs. Westlake as chairman, took charge, and delicious home-made cakes and fruit punch were served to all. The evening passed all too fast, thus closing one of the most happy social times in the history of this thriving and busy little church.

GLENDALE IN LIMELIGHT

MAY FIESTA BEING PLANNED
WILL ECLIPSE ANYTHING
HELD HERE

Although Glendale may not have the distinction of having within her borders an exposition exhibit of such renown as the exhibits at San Diego and San Francisco, yet she does have a class of citizens who make a success of whatever they undertake. The undertaking, in this instance, is to be a three or four days' May festival, the dates being probably the 27th, 28th and 29th of the month. This great event will likely be preceded by a tournament which will be held May 22, the Saturday prior to the festival proper. This affair although originating in the minds of the members of the Tuesday Afternoon club of Glendale, which, by the way, is one of the strongest organizations in California, is to be participated in by all civic and fraternal organizations of the city; in fact, everybody that possesses any real boost spirit will be thoroughly alive on this occasion to make the event one of the greatest that has ever taken place in Glendale. An inquiry was made about the list of events planned for and the reply was made by the instigators that "we have a program as long as your arm."

This is an instance wherein the citizens of Glendale will drop all factional differences—there will be no north, no south, no east, no west—there will be no rich, there will be no poor; there will be no white, there will be no black—but all will unite to place our city in the limelight in a creditable manner.

LA CANADA TRAGEDY

The Pulliam Undertaking company was called to La Canada Thursday afternoon to take charge of the remains of William Murphy, who accidentally shot himself. Mr. Murphy was out hunting and shooting cats that had been annoying him and in some manner dropped his gun, which was discharged, the shot entering his body. The accident happened about 2:30 and Dr. Hunt of Glendale was called to attend the injured man, but was unable to do anything for him. The unfortunate man died about 4:30 from loss of blood, his abdomen and left arm being laid open with the force of the shot. The coroner was notified and will conduct an investigation, although there is no question as to how the man came to his death.

The deceased had been living in La Canada for the past six years. He was forty-four years of age and leaves his wife to mourn his sudden death. The remains are at the Pulliam undertaking parlors awaiting final arrangements.

THOUSAND-MILE TRIP

Three automobile loads of people, under the leadership of Mr. H. C. Tupper, made a trip up into Kern and Inyo counties last week to see some government land. They left here a week ago Tuesday and were away eight days, covering more than a thousand miles on the trip and seeing much wonderful scenery and many interesting things, among them a baseball game between two Plute Indian teams from the reservation near Bishop. While in Bishop they took a look at Mr. T. C. Thornton's place and found that he has a beautiful home there. Several of the party located homestead and desert claims in the Valley of the Moon.

Those in the party besides Mr. Tupper were Mr. and Mrs. Witham of Lomita avenue, Mr. J. Nichols, also of Lomita avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Phipps, Mr. Dair of Sixth street, Mr. Leon Sonntag, Mr. Frank Dupuy and Mr. Hull of Los Angeles.

LEAVE FOR CONCERT TOUR

Miss Melicent Virden, talented pianist, and Mr. Ferdinand Rigali, violinist, leave the 26th of April on a concert tour, visiting all the larger cities between Los Angeles and Chicago. Miss Virden and Mr. Rigali gave a concert in the high school auditorium Monday evening that was enjoyed by the music lovers of this vicinity and Los Angeles and that augurs well for the coming tour.

Both the piano and violin numbers were given with a finish and interpretation that only artists can give. These musicians were very generous with encores and all who were permitted to hear the concert felt they had indeed received a treat.

BROWN AND CURRY MEETINGS

Glendale people will be interested in knowing that the meetings being held in Pasadena by Evangelists Brown and Curry are held at 10 in the morning and 7:30 in the evening. There are no afternoon meetings.

POLITICIANS BUSY

CASA VERDUGO DOES NOT WISH TO ANNEX—MERCHANTS ARE APPEALED TO

To the Merchants and Business Men of Glendale: For the third time within a few years Casa Verdugo has decisively defeated an attempt to annex her to Glendale.

There is not now, and never has been, any real desire among the residents of Casa Verdugo to become a part of Glendale. A careful investigation of the different annexation campaigns shows that politicians of the city of Glendale have been the leading spirits in trying to create such a sentiment. To accomplish this object before this last election they made many visits at night to residents of the district and by holding out promises impossible to fulfill, have succeeded in stirring up some trouble in the district.

In the election just past, as in all previous annexation elections, prominent men and politicians of Glendale spent the greater part of the day in Casa Verdugo using their automobiles and working for annexation. The people of Casa Verdugo strongly resent any interference in their business on the part of the citizens of Glendale, her politicians and her officials.

The people of Casa Verdugo wish to live at peace with their neighbors and the people of Glendale, but the constant and continual annoyance of having politicians of a neighboring city visit us with the object of starting factional fights can have but one result.

Glendale merchants receive from residents of Casa Verdugo every month many thousands of dollars in payment for goods purchased of them. Can you merchants afford to have these tactics continued? Can you afford to have ill feeling constantly aroused against you among the people of Casa Verdugo?

The politicians of Glendale are rapidly bringing about a condition that cannot fail to result in a great loss of business to the merchants of Glendale. The citizens of Casa Verdugo feel that it is up to the merchants and business men of Glendale to control their politicians.

HOME ECONOMICS

The home economics section of the Columbus avenue Parent-Teacher association held a very interesting meeting Thursday when Mrs. Mary Lanthear gave an excellent address on "Truthfulness Between Parents and Children." On account of this having been a postponed meeting, there were not as many present as there should have been. Mrs. Lanthear handled her subject in a most able manner and every parent should have heard her address.

BOY SCOUTS

The newly organized Boy Scout Patrol of the First Baptist Sunday school, with Mr. Wallace Fryer as scout master, held a meeting Thursday evening in the recreation room of the church, with a very good attendance. The boys finished their inside examinations and manifested a keen interest in the work. Saturday the boys are asked to meet at 1 o'clock at the church, each boy bringing lunch for one. From there they will start on a hike to Griffith park, where they will meet the Los Angeles patrols and scout masters and will spend the afternoon in the open. All boys twelve years old and over are invited to come and have a good time.

ILLINOIS VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilkey and Mrs. Wilkey's mother, Mrs. Bell, all of Genoa, Ills., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wood of 1641 West Seventh street for several days this week. They have gone on to San Diego, where they will spend a few days and then go to San Francisco for the other exposition. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkey were near neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Wood when they all lived in Genoa.

OPEN MUFFLERS

A good peaceable citizen of Glendale rushed into the Evening News office today just as we were going to press and said write a few lines warning users of automobiles and motorcycles not to violate the city ordinance so recklessly by using motors with open exhausts. He called special attention to an instance of a man who makes more noise with a motorcycle than would be made by the German army.

TROPICO ITEMS

MRS. KATE WALLER BARRETT
THE HONORED GUEST AND
SPEAKER AT TROPICO

The program presented Thursday afternoon by the Tropico Thursday Afternoon club proved of unusual interest. The auditorium of the G. A. R. hall was crowded with a large and appreciative audience who listened with keenest interest and attention to an address given by Dr. Kate Waller Barrett, national president of the Florence Crittenton Homes and also representative appointed by President Wilson on the immigration bureau at San Francisco to remain there during the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Many were the beautiful sentiments expressed by Dr. Barrett and many the homely truths clothed in beautiful words that will linger long and with good results in the minds of the hearers of this eminent woman, whose life is devoted to rescue work.

Mrs. Frank Wolfe preceded Dr. Barrett in a few minutes' talk on the national marketing problem. Mrs. John Virgil Sweetzer gave a vocal number.

Mrs. Charles A. Barker, president, presided most graciously at the business meeting preceding the program and in a most charming manner presented Dr. Barrett and Mrs. Wolfe. Mrs. Frank Stoddard, president of the Los Angeles Florence Crittenton Home, gave a few remarks and also thanked the members of N. P. Banks W. R. C., of whom there was a large number present, for the generous donation of preserves, jams and jellies presented to the home as an Easter offering.

The afternoon will be one of the brightest and best that has been given by the club this year. The hall was prettily decorated in many potted plants, ferns and roses, which afforded a most pleasing background for the handsomely gowned ladies. In the banquet room where tea was served following the reception which closed the program, the decorations were in pink. Pink roses and plumosus were most effectively arranged in a long, flat effect the length of the tables. Mrs. Edward M. Lynch, Mrs. Charles A. Barker, Mrs. Mary McLean, Mrs. A. P. Stone, Mrs. G. B. Moore and Mrs. E. M. McClure presided with charming hospitality at the tea tables. In the receiving line were Mrs. Charles A. Barker, Miss Cora Hickman, Mrs. Wesley H. Bullis, Mrs. Hal H. Davenport, Mrs. David H. Imler, Mrs. J. Herbert Smith, Mrs. E. M. Lynch, Mrs. Mary McLean and Mrs. Leigh Bancroft. The decorating committee consisted of Mrs. L. C. Rice, Mrs. David H. Imler, Mrs. Samuel A. Pollock, Miss Elsie Anderson and Miss Cora Hickman. Many Glendale representative club and society women were the guests of the Tropico club.

Mr. and Mrs. Pingree and Mrs. Frank I. Marsh as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Flory, motored to Pasadena Thursday evening, where they attended the Brown and Curry evangelistic meetings.

The Ladies' Aid of the First Presbyterian church of Tropico is making extensive preparations for the chicken pie supper that is to be given this evening in the Sunday school room of the church. The ladies will serve this fine dinner from 5:30 to 8 p. m. cafeteria style. The ladies of this society are noted for their splendid chicken pie dinners.

Following the close of the Tropico Thursday Afternoon club at the G. A. R. hall Thursday, Dr. Kate Waller Barrett, national president of the Florence Crittenton Homes, of which there are eighty-two in the United States, Mrs. Frank Stoddard, president of the Los Angeles Florence Crittenton Home, Mrs. John S. Mitchell of the board of managers of the Home, Mrs. Frank Wolfe of Los Angeles, Mr. Edward Prentiss of San Francisco, Mrs. Harry Bowman and Mrs. E. W. Richardson were the guests of Mrs. David H. Imler of "Palm Villa." A pleasant feature of the afternoon was a motor trip throughout beautiful Tropico and Glendale.

GARDEN TEA

The garden tea to be given by Mrs. William Porter at her beautiful North Brand boulevard home for the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Mark's Episcopal church, Saturday afternoon, promises to be an especially brilliant function. This is not an invitation affair, but all members of the auxiliary and their friends, as well as the people of Glendale and vicinity in general, are urged to attend. There will be no limit to the number which the spacious grounds of the Porter home can accommodate and the hostess will be glad to welcome a large number.

CUMMINS RECEPTION

MR. AND MRS. BRALY AND SAMUEL PARKER WELCOMED
IOWA SENATOR

The reception given to Senator Cummins by former Iowans at the Alexandria Thursday was characterized by great cordiality and an utter absence of formality and stiffness. Everybody seemed to be acquainted with everybody else and many of the multitude were already very well acquainted with the senator whose three terms as governor of the state made them thus acquainted before they sent him to Washington, where as senator he is now serving his second term. While approachable, cordial and affable, there are no "frills" on the Cummins outfit and hence good sense and good purpose marks his public service at every turn.

That fidelity to public trust in official life is not one continuous joy epoch is manifest in the senator's appearance, as he begins to show age and wear which indicates how faithful he has attended to his duties as senator in very trying periods. The senator was duly proud of the long line of officials, former Hawkeyes, in the reception line, who had "hit the trail" of office getting since coming to the coast, and these, his former friends, were duly proud of him and not slow or backward in manifesting it.

The reception line was long and brilliant, many of the ladies being elegantly costumed, and the Iowa ability to converse had not deserted them since coming to the coast.

Glendale was represented by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Braly and Samuel Parker turned Hawkeye long enough to meet and greet the distinguished senator for whom he has a very high regard.

STATE P. E. O. OFFICERS HERE

Mrs. J. G. Hunchberger of 344 South Central avenue is entertaining the state officers of the P. E. O., with an all-day meeting today and luncheon at 1 o'clock. The rooms are beautifully decked with red roses and ferns for the occasion, and the table was especially attractive with a low cut bowl of roses and asparagus plumosa, small red baskets of nuts and candies and place cards with red roses painted above the name.

The forenoon was given over to business, there being a great deal of work to do in planning for the coming state convention, which begins April 28th and will be held in Alhambra.

The guests of the day are Mrs. Patience Beatty and Mrs. Maude Garvin of Los Angeles, Mrs. Lena Miller of Pasadena, Mrs. Katherine Fehren of San Jose, Mrs. Dessa Fultz of Santa Barbara and Mrs. Martha Smith of Hollywood.

INTERMEDIATE P. T. A. BENEFIT

Mrs. E. S. McKee, Mrs. R. L. Hinckley, Mrs. Nathaniel Green, Mrs. Greeley Kolts and Miss Clara Midcalf, the committee in charge of the moving picture benefit to be given at the high school auditorium Saturday evening for the Intermediate P. T. A., announce an interesting program of reels. The performances will open promptly at 7 and 8:30. The previous trial given the new machine is evidence that it will be running smoothly for Saturday night, and the performances will begin promptly at the hours stated.

A certain percentage of the proceeds of this entertainment will go to pay for the moving picture machine, the rest to go into the association fund and to pay the expenses of a party to be given the June graduating class of the Intermediate school.

LITTLE BILLY AUSTIN

Word has been received by Mr. C. O. Pulliam of the death Thursday evening of little Billy, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Will A. Austin, who used to live in Glendale, but have moved to Kansas City, Mo.

"Billy" was known and loved by a great number of people in this city for his winning ways, and many hearts will grieve to learn of his passing on. Mr. Austin is a cousin of Mr. Pulliam.

MRS. POWERS ENTERTAINS

Mrs. N. A. Powers of 315 Colorado boulevard was hostess at a pretty affair on Thursday evening, when she entertained a number of friends from the North in honor of the birthday of her sister, Miss Sarah Vaughan. Pink and green were the colors used for decoration to good effect. Music, dancing and progressive whist passed the evening very pleasantly. In the afternoon Miss Vaughan entertained with a theater party at the Burbank.

MISS ROBERTS HOSTESS

ENTERTAINS FOR SISTER SOON
TO BE BRIDE OF MR. ROY
MCMILLAN

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roberts, 1506 Penn street, was the scene of a happy gathering Thursday evening when their daughter, Miss Laura Roberts, entertained in honor of her sister, Miss Florence, who is soon to become the wife of Mr. Roy McMillan.

Ten young ladies were entertained at six o'clock dinner, the gentlemen joining them later in the evening. The decorations were in pink and white, bouquets of beautiful roses being used everywhere. In the dining-room the table with its immaculate linen, pretty china and silver and centerpiece of Cecil Brunner buds in a pink tulle bow, surmounted with a pink tulle bow, with ferns and baby roses extending out over the cloth, was a pretty sight. Hand-painted place cards, the work of the hostess, who is unusually gifted in that line, were attached to tiny bags of rice. Above, pink streamers intertwined with greenery extended from the chandelier to the corners of the dining-room, while the lights, pink shaded, cast a rosy glow over the merry company assembled. After the ladies had expressed their appreciation of the delicious dinner in the most convincing way, the gentlemen made their appearance and music and games were enjoyed during the evening. Hand-painted hearts, also the work of Miss Laura Roberts, were used in a guessing game and were prized souvenirs.

Those present at this happy affair were Mr. Baxter of San Francisco, Mrs. Gould of New York City, Mr. Blaine McLean of Lompoc, Arizona, Mr. and Mrs. Crew of Tropico, Mr. and Mrs. Broughton, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Brundage, Miss Sullivan, Miss Jennings, Miss McMillan, Mr. Harrod, Mr. Donald McMillan, all of Los Angeles, and Mr. Lewis Roberts, the hostess and the honored couple.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Sixteen young friends of Miss Eva Thede gave her a surprise Thursday evening in honor of her sixteenth birthday, Miss Pearl Hunsberger having instigated the affair and carried it to a successful conclusion. Bouquets of roses, now at their best, were used for decoration, and the young people enjoyed the games of the evening as only sixteen-year-olds can. The usual stunts were performed and refreshments served, the young hostess recovering from her surprise sufficiently to make welcome the following guests: Misses Helen Reynolds, Bessie Carney, Doris Ingledue, Lena Mae Brice, Leone Brice, Marian Addison, Pearl Hunsberger, the hostess, and Messrs. Eugene Dopp, Verne Wilson, Noble Van Ness, Elwood Ingledue, Paul Brooks, Wilbur Lee, Ernest Thede and Harry Reed.

ANOTHER MEMBER IN THE "POLLY" CAST

As a play, "Polly of the Circus" is a real theatrical gem. As a circus, however, it is likely to prove a "tame" affair, for the only four-legged animal connected with the alumni production which might, through some elasticity of the imagination, be called the menagerie, bears the docile name of "Baby." This infant, so to speak, is a beautiful white horse and is the property of Cleo Ridgley, a star of the moving picture firmament. Miss Ridgley has very generously offered the use of her horse for the play in order that the indispensable circus atmosphere may be more easily obtained.

"Baby" granted the writer an interview the other day and, although somewhat reticent as regards himself, we gleaned enough to feel satisfied that he is no slouch as an actor. He has appeared before the footlights many times in company with his mistress and knows the ropes as well as he does his own stall. As the symptoms of a public appearance—his mane and tail have been braided a la sawdust ring—are very acute at the present time, he is as sure as anyone that he will be allowed to stage a come-back.

True, he will have a new mistress, for Barbara Mitchell will be the "Polly" of the circus play, but "Baby" is too much of a gentleman and philosopher to balk at a matter of mere custodianship and promises to be on his best behavior—and lest he forget and you forget—the date will be the 22nd and 23rd of April.

Mary Pickford will be in Glendale next Monday afternoon and evening. She will stop at the Palace Grand theater as the guest of the Colorado boulevard Parent-Teacher association. Come and meet her as "Cinderella."

YOUR OWN GENERATOR

The motor of a man is the motive in him. You can draw a toy engine by a string; but there are no strings on the train that makes a mile a minute—this engine carries its own fire. Every inefficient man is being pulled along by some child's toy string that has no connection with his mental machinery. But when a man starts to generate his own fire—then look out. An express train is coming.—E. E. Purinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest J. Morgan of 409 North Central avenue, Tropic, have purchased some land near El Centro in the Imperial valley and will leave next week for the valley. They have retained property in Tropic, which they will rent, and will probably spend most of the time at El Centro until they get the new ranch well under way.

A little daughter came to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Matthiesen of 527 West Sixth street this morning, April 16th, 1915. The little lady, whose name is Dorothy Irene, found a warm welcome and loving hearts awaiting her, and that she may have a long and happy life is the wish of her parents' many friends, who are also her friends now.

Mrs. Jos. H. Webster of Park avenue entertained a few friends with a luncheon and pleasant afternoon on Tuesday in honor of the birthday of Mrs. E. J. Morgan and also as a farewell for Mrs. Morgan, who leaves soon for the Imperial valley. Covers were laid for Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. A. W. Collins, Mrs. Edw. M. Lynch, Mrs. Wm. C. Wattles, Miss Dorothy Wood and the hostess.

Rev. and Mrs. Clyde M. Crist of Pomona are motoring to Glendale today after Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan, who is to give the readings in the First M. E. church of Pomona this evening. Accompanying Mrs. Sloan is little Lillian Mason of 1562 Riverdale drive, who is to play the incidental music for Mrs. Sloan's reading, "The Bells," and other numbers requiring musical accompaniment.

The Milford Street Neighborhood club met with Mrs. Elbert Nichols of 1460 Milford street Thursday afternoon. All of the club members were present and a fine time was enjoyed. Five hundred was played, the prize going to Mrs. S. C. Leppleman and the consolation to Mrs. Fletcher, after which dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. This little neighborhood club meets every other Thursday for a pleasant afternoon together.

For the benefit of the Glendale friends who are attending, or wish to attend, the Brown and Curry meetings at Pasadena, the announcement is made that there is a meeting at 10 o'clock every morning, but no afternoon meetings as yet. The afternoon meetings will begin later and will be announced. All Glendale friends are cordially invited to attend the meetings and places will be reserved for any delegations if they will notify Mr. Curry.

DON'T WORRY! WORK!

The same brain cannot at the same time dwell on work and worry. You cannot dare while you despair. It is not so much the quality of a man's mind as the quantity of his nerve that brings him through. So long as ruin is only a possibility there is always a chance to escape. Get out of the fright habit and into the fight habit. Many a man has missed a picnic because he was certain a cloudy sky meant rain. — Economic Advertising.

EMPLOYERS LIABLE

Employees who are injured on the premises of their employment while performing services for themselves either before, after or during business hours, may collect damages from their employer.

This was established in a decision handed down by the industrial accident commission in the case of Miss Lucile A. Rieff, a Sacramento school teacher, who fractured her right elbow by tripping over a telephone cord at the Tenth and P street school. The state body allowed her $65 for physicians' fees.

Harris Weinstein filed a minority decision, in which he points out that Miss Rieff has no right to damages because she was performing a service for herself after school had been dismissed.

The city commission may fight the decision.

Commissioner Pillsbury and Mr. French held Miss Rieff is entitled to damages because the danger through which she was injured existed all the time and would have caused an accident even had she been performing a duty for the city.

MEET YOU HALF WAY

The management of the Evening News has often announced to individuals and clubs that The News is willing to meet them more than half way when it comes to the question of exchanging courtesies.

Well organized clubs and societies should always provide for an advertising fund in their publicity department. It is unfair to expect a local paper to use time and space, both of which are equivalent to money, without remuneration.

The Evening News does not draw close lines when it comes to giving publicity to worthy events, but a whole-hearted spirit in those with whom we are dealing is greatly appreciated.

The Evening News is in a position to give excellent publicity to all Glendale community events, and it costs the management dollars and cents to give such publicity, so the fairness in the make-up of persons having charge of publicity work in connection with pay entertainments is greatly appreciated by the Evening News.

Good business rules must be adhered to quite closely by any business concern that would make sure of continuing in business. The heart of the management is right to favor giving publicity often without any charge, but good safe business will not permit of that way of doing business.

We are meeting club people more than half way who appreciate the value of Glendale Evening News publicity.

NEW RIVERDALE RESIDENCE

Mr. C. K. Robertshaw of 628 Adams street is erecting a beautiful modern seven-room bungalow for Mr. and Mrs. Homer D. Thaxter at 1543 Riverdale drive. The outside trim is of artificial stone and inside the house has hardwood floors, heavy enamel, modern plumbing and beautiful fixtures, making one more handsome home in Glendale. Mr. Thaxter is chief engineer for the Edison Electric company of Los Angeles and is building this for a permanent home.

War used to be spoken of as the profession of gentlemen, but nobody seems to think of it that way any more.

Children's Bank Accounts

Teaching children the value of money is a very important part of their education.

Thrift does not come at our beck and call, nor can it be slipped on or off like an old coat. It is established by practice rather than theory, by example more than precept.

Girls as well as boys should be encouraged to earn money by real service, and both should early learn what banks are for and how money grows when it is planted in the right soil, so to speak.

THE BANK OF GLENDALE encourages children's accounts and pays the largest rate of interest consistent with good banking.

You can start a savings account with one dollar.

THE BIG DEBATE

Details for the big debate to be held at Trinity Auditorium in Los Angeles April 21, 22, 23 and 24 between Rev. John H. Troy, pastor of the First Baptist church of Glendale, and a New York attorney, on the question of Russellism, are complete. The public will be freely admitted to these debates.

Some extracts from letters given below are evidence of Pastor Troy's ability to handle his side of the question.

My Dear Brother: With many thanks I return the eight inclosures used successfully in reclaiming two of our members and how many more I know not, from Russellism. I have also warned off for the present at least an attack upon us which would probably mean a lot of work with little profit unless it be to advertise our church.

You are doing the cause of Christ a great good in taking up these matters fearlessly. No doubt you will have plenty of opportunity to exercise your gifts in disseminating the information which you have so carefully prepared and successfully used.

Cordially yours,

J. CHESTER HYDE,

(Assistant Pastor Euclid Ave. Baptist church, Cleveland, Ohio)

(Telegram to Rev. T. W. Callaway, Pastor Tabernacle Baptist church, Macon, Ga.)

Lectured (Troy) to full house. Absolutely annihilated every Russell doctrine. Has wonderful grip on the question. Held audience one and a half hours. You cannot afford to let him go North without coming to Macon. Can you make dates for him city auditorium, March fifth? Also Savannah, Charleston. Plans to be home on tenth.

REV. PICKERN,

(Pastor Ancient City Baptist church, St. Augustine, Fla.)

"Troy made good last night. He made a ten-pin strike. A great address it was he gave us. Wish I were able to put that man on Ruthenford's trail and keep him there."

W. E. FLETCHER,

"Troy certainly told them something at this meeting. I was amused at what the Telegraph reporter stated to me after the lecture. He had come with note book ready to take down the lecture, but was so swept off his feet by what was being said that he simply quit his work and listened in amazement. A young lady member of our church, who was also a stenographer and who went prepared to take down the lecture, had a similar experience.

"There is no doubt in my mind that he (Troy) can annihilate any of these fellows that come before him. He held the people spellbound for at least an hour and a half and I am sure no one was ready for him to stop. He handles the question in a masterly way and he has certainly paved the way for himself in our coming Bible Conference."

(Formerly Pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, Macon, Ga., now Pastor of First Baptist church, Dublin, Ga.)

(Referring to the second series of debates from which Judge Rutherford withdrew before final arrangements were made, C. C. Cook, publisher of New York, wrote:)

It is a matter of great regret to me that I was not in when you called yesterday, as I would like to have talked with you about the debate with Mr. Rutherford. You can count on me to do all in my power to further your interests in this matter.

I think this debate can be made a great effort, though I am a little surprised that Rutherford would engage with you again. We will have to secure some good location in Brooklyn, and have some brother of prominence to preside, then the advertising will have to be looked after, though I have no doubt the Millennial Dawn people will attend pretty well to that, yet we will have to have our friends out in force, too.

Assuring you of my great interest in this matter, and my earnest prayers for you, I am

Cordially yours in Christ,

CHARLES C. COOK.

(Rev. Cook is the publisher of the literature used by local pastors in their attack on Russell. He is also the publisher of Dr. Haldeman's famous books.)

Trinity auditorium, April 21, 22, 23 and 24. Public freely admitted.

* MISAPPLIED INDUSTRY

A certain judge tells the story of a cigar manufacturer and a banker who were attending a Wagner concert one evening. The program did not please them and they began to talk.

"Every man," the banker said, "wants to do something outside of his own work."

"Yes," assented the cigar manufacturer, "I manufacture good cigars and yet I've always wanted to be a banker."

"You wouldn't be a good one. I am a successful banker, but I always wanted to write a book. And now here's this man Wagner tried his hand at music. Just listen to the stuff! And yet we all know he used to build good parlor cars."—Harper's Magazine.

COMSTOCKS RETURN

It is with much pleasure that the people of Glendale have learned that Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Comstock, for a long time residents of Glendale, but who have resided in the East for the past five years, have returned to this city to reside, having come from Attleboro, Mass., a few days since.

Mr. and Mrs. Comstock may be said to have been among Glendale's early settlers, having lived here at a time when Glendale was a mere village. Mr. Comstock has been engaged in the real estate business for a good many years and is one of those substantial men who are an influence for good in any community.

Mrs. Comstock was associated with the Glendale sanitarium as matron from the time of the organization of the institution until five years ago, when she left to take a similar position in the sanitarium at Attleboro, Mass. She now returns to take up her former work and is being warmly welcomed by her associates and many friends here.

General Scott says the Indian never breaks a promise. Honesty must be an instinct. It never was acquired through contact with civilization.

A couple recently married had a moving picture made of the ceremony. Perhaps the idea is that to run the reel backwards would be equivalent to untying the knot.

A NOTED ARTIST

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sharp, who have been visiting Mrs. Sharp's mother in Pasadena, spent Thursday with their aunt, Mrs. E. T. Byram, of 218 Glendale avenue. Mr. Sharp is an artist and a painter of the American Indian. His works are of nation-wide repute and the government has purchased many of his paintings because of their true representation of Indian life and dancing.

He has a winter studio in Montana and a summer studio at Paus, N. M., where he and Mrs. Sharp are going soon. Paus is the place where the artists' colony is located and many noted painters both of America and Europe summer there and work, as the scenery is especially fitted for certain pictures. Mr. Sharp's studio was once a mission chapel, which he has restored and fitted up. Lacking a bell, he went down to Santa Fe, where he found an old bell of more than a hundred years old, which he purchased and took back to his chapel, and had it hung in the belfry. The Indians tell him it is the identical bell that used to hang in that chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharp have just returned from San Diego and San Francisco, where they attended the exhibitions. While in San Francisco they were the guests of Mrs. Hearst, who is patroness and sponsor for the state university. Mrs. Hearst has purchased many of Mr. Sharp's paintings for the Indian collection at the university. Many of his pictures have been sold in Europe also and it is his ambition to paint every tribe of the American Indian before they become extinct.

RETURNS FROM TWO THOUSAND MILE AUTO TRIP

Hadley Brown, who had one of the Stoffel auto service touring cars in the northern part of the state, returned to Glendale Wednesday night after a 2000-mile trip. Mr. Brown says that the roads throughout the state are in very good condition. The trip proves that the Stoffel auto service makes good on long as well as short trips.

BIG GOVERNMENT LAND OPENING

Mr. T. A. Johnson of Calipatria, after talking with government representatives who have been in the Imperial valley, not only investigating surveys, but the withdrawn lands, advises that in the very near future some of the finest land in the Imperial valley, which was originally withdrawn on account of the Yuma project, is to be thrown open again to settlers.

It seems there are a few entrymen who had filed on their land previous to withdrawal who will be given some priority right, but from men who know, there seems to be about ten or twelve per cent of the fine lands around Calipatria, between the Salton sea and the high line, Niland, and the third standard, that are going to be thrown open. The exact scheme is not yet known, whether the government will cut down to 80-acre tracts, whether they will auction it off, or how it will be done, but the government has engineers investigating the proposition.

A MARVEL OF TRAINING

Rose had called on her afternoon out to see her friend, Arabella. Arabella's mistress had just purchased a parrot, and Rose was much interested in the bird.

"Birds is shore sensible," she observed. "You kin learn them anything. I uster work for a lady that had a bird in a clock, an' when it was time to tell de time ob day it uster come out an' say 'cuckoo' just as many times as de time was."

"Go along. Yo' doan' say so," said Arabella, incredulously.

"Shore thing," replied Rose, "an' de mo' wonderful part was dat it was only a wooden bird, too."—Harper's Magazine.

When a man of 94 marries a woman of 79 one cannot deny that they have reached the age of discretion, but there is a tendency to wonder if they have not passed it.

A LITTLE SORREL MARE

Down on the farm we used to have a little sorrel mare. She was high strung and a hustler, but father used to say that she could travel all day in a half-bushel basket.

You have seen men who hustle a great deal who are like the little sorrel mare in that they never seem to get anywhere.

A man who is hustling his business does not appear to hustle. It is only when a man's business is hustling him that he has the appearance of hustling.

An executive with a desk covered with papers—unfinished business—no time to see anyone—every appearance of being busy, will be found to be, on close analysis, busy—yes, busy but nine-tenths of his busy-ness is occasioned by his efforts to keep from getting run over by his business. He is kept busy dodging and putting off, whereas if he would take things in their order and dispose of them one at a time much of his busy-ness would disappear. And unless he does this, his business will disappear.

Most men are trying to live a week in a day, and in an effort to consume are consumed. Be a real executive, get on top of your job. Do one thing at a time and finish that thing before you let counter attractions cause you to scatter.

A real hustler makes haste slowly, and through moderate, consistent, persistent effort, he hustles "others and things" instead of being hustled by "things and others."

He is ahead of his job, not behind it. He is on top, not under. He is one man in a thousand—look around. The Big Man delegates authority along with responsibility. The Big Man seldom does anything that he can get some one else to do acceptably. The Big Man is seldom busy. The Little Man is always busy. The Big Man handles big things. The Little Man is handled by little things—literally consumed by them.

The Big Man is in harmony with laws and principles. The Little Man is trying to reverse them. The Big Man realizes that to know principles is more important. The Little Man does not know or recognize principles and is therefore greatly affected by detail. The Little Man in trying to handle his detail is continually "jarred" by principles. Let me ask you to ask yourself, "Are you a Big Man or a Little Sorrel Mare?"—Ford Times.
